A month's worth of "Presidential Fiddle Tunes"

February is home to the Presidents' Day holiday and (not coincidentally) the birthdays of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. And since we are on the topic of presidents, you have probably noticed that there are quite a few Old Time tunes named after presidents. So, in honor of George Washington, whose original birthday holiday was moved to make the present day holiday, please enjoy 28 "presidential fiddle tunes" - one for each day in February. Bonus leap year tune included for 2028!
